

Platinum Home Mortgage Announces Major Expansion in the West

Welcomes Divisional Manager Michael J. Sweeney to the Platinum Organization

Carson, Calif. October 3, 2017-Residential mortgage lender Platinum Home Mortgage Corporation is pleased to welcome Michael J. Sweeney, who will assume the new role of divisional manager. Sweeney is a 25+ year veteran of the mortgage industry and will be responsible for recruiting and opening new offices throughout the West.

Joining Michael are seasoned veterans; Lorri Campbell, division operations manager; Jon Copeland, branch manager; Jessica Brown, new home sales coordinator; Kathy Spicuzza, senior mortgage consultant; Robert Davis, mortgage consultant, and numerous other mortgage professionals.

“I’m thrilled to be joining Platinum Home Mortgage as its Divisional Manager,” said Mike Sweeney. “One of the main lessons I have taken from my 25+ years as a mortgage professional is that having the support of a stellar company is key to success and there is no finer organization than Platinum in the industry. By adding tenacity, a unique depth of experience and engagement thru our Train N Tour new home education series, I’m very excited for the tremendous opportunities that lie ahead. Platinum Home Mortgage Corp has long been the leader in our industry and I look forward to joining such a strong, dedicated and accomplished staff in planning for the future.”

The new division offers conventional, Non Q-M, FHA, VA, USDA and a variety of renovation programs, as well as manufactured home financing. Closed end seconds as well as HELOC’s are soon to be available.

“We are very pleased to add Michael and his team to Platinum” said Lee Gross, senior vice president. “His new role positions us to grow our sales organization with experienced mortgage professionals, create a new industry-leading operations center and set the standard from industry professionals.
